Art Unit: 3781

Claims 2, 8, 11-20 and 22 have been canceled. Claims 1, 3-7, 9, 10, 21 and 23-28 are pending.

Claim 4 is objected to because it depends from itself and is incomplete.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Capy.

Capy discloses a display package with a plurality of fold down storage containers with a similar fold down structure to Wenner. Capy discloses the invention except for the blister in the blister surface. It is believed that a blister defines a molded plastic surface. Official notice is taken that the manufacture of components from molded plastic is well known in the container art. It would have been obvious to modify the material of Capy to be molded plastic for ease in manufacturing from a readily available material which is relatively inexpensive. It is noted that applicant has not seasonally challenged the Official notice taken in the last Office action. Therefore, the Official notice is now being treated as a prior art admission.

Claims 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over German reference No. (29517259).

The German reference discloses the invention except for the plastic material of the blister for "blister surfaces." It would have been obvious to modify the material of the German reference to be molded plastic for ease in manufacturing from a readily available material which is relatively inexpensive.

Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cappy in view of Czopor, Jr. (Czopor).

Cappy discloses the invention except for the insert card. Czopor teaches an insert card. It would have been obvious to add an insert card with product information for the reasons advanced by Czopor in col. 4, lines 21-23 for the identification of the articles and compartments, for decoration and for advertising.

Claims 1, 3, 5-7, 9, 10, 21 and 23-25 are allowable.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 26-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
